• These can only be done by the Power of the Holy Spirit.

("BEING SENSIBLE THAT I AM UNABLE TO DO ANYTHING WITHOUT GOD' S HELP, I DO HUMBL Y ENTREAT HIM BY HIS GRACE TO ENABLE ME TO KEEP THESE RESOLUTIONS, SO FAR AS THEY ARE AGREEABLE TO HIS WILL, FOR CHRIST' S SAKE.")

• An unknown author wrote this about the apostle Paul in True Discipleship by William McDonald:)

- He is a man without the care of making friends
- Without the hope or desire of worldly good
- Without the fear of worldly loss
- Without the care of life,
- Without the fear of death
- He is a man of no rank, country or condition
- A man of one thought - the gospel of Christ
- A man of one purpose - the glory of God
- A fool and content to be reckoned a fool for Christ
- He must speak or he must die, and though he should die, he will speak.
- He has no rest but hastens over land and sea, over rocks and trackless desert.
- He cries aloud and spares not and will not be hindered. In the poisons he lifts up his voice and in the tempests of the ocean he is not silent.
- Before awful councils and enthroned Kings, he witnesses on behalf of the truth.
- Nothing can quench his voice but death and even before the knife has severed his head from his body, he speaks, he prays, he testifies, he confesses, he beseeches, he wars, and blesses you cruel people.

CT Studd:) "Some want to live within the sound of Church or Chapel bell; I want to run a rescue shop within a yard of Hell"

An article written by an atheist:) If I firmly believed as millions say they do, that the knowledge and practice of religion in this life influences destiny in another, then religion would mean everything to me. I would cast away earthly enjoyments as dross, earthly cares as follies, and earthly thoughts and feelings as vanity. Religion would be my first waking thought and my last image before sleep. I should labor in its cause alone. I would take thought for the morrow of eternity alone. I would esteem one soul gained for heaven worth a life suffering. Earthly consequences would never stay my hand or seal my lips. Earth, its joys and its griefs would occupy no moment of my thoughts. I would strive to look upon Eternity alone and on the immortal souls around me, soon to be everlastingly happy or everlastingly miserable. I would sow forth to the world and preach to it in season and out of season and my text would be "what shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"
