The Last Will And Testament Of Jesus Christ

I, Jesus Christ of Nazareth, King of Kings, the Lord of Lords, the Son of God make this my last will and testament.

I give to you an inheritance that will last forever. It has been reserved for you from my Father, the Almighty God, the Creator of the universe.

I give you every spiritual blessing in heavenly places, I give you the free gift of salvation through faith, I give you the forgiveness of all your sins, I give you the peace that passes all understanding.

I give you joy unspeakable and full of glory. I crown you with lovingkindness and mercy.

I give you blessings that will exceed anything you could ask or think. I give you wisdom when you open your mouth, and the law of kindness on your tongue. I give you strength and honor for your clothing. I give you the greatest gift you'll ever know, it's the gift of my love, the love that caused me to give my life for your sins.

Furthermore, in addition to all these blessings, I give you a mansion where you will live forever. This mansion will be situated in the Holy City, in the New Jerusalem, where you will have no more tears, no more death, no more sorrow, no more pain, nothing evil will be in that city, for the throne of God will be there, and the greatest of all, you will see me face to face.

I also give you a treasure that is better than silver and better than gold and is contained in the Sacred Scriptures that I am giving you. The Bible will guide and comfort you and will instruct you on how to use your inheritance.

The foregoing testament consisting of all these blessings is yours when you believe that I am the Son of the Living God and receive me as Savior and Lord.

These blessings have been attested to by a great cloud of witnesses, beginning with Abraham, Moses and all the prophets. They have been declared by all my disciples, sent to you by my Father, ratified by my blood and sealed by the Holy Spirit.

These words are faithful and true,

Jesus Christ
